PRO LEG

20. (Unclassified - HMS) LIAISON Sent to Clem Shearer, in the office of Representative George Brown (D., Calif.), copies of the Director's recent speeches where he mentioned sharing intelligence with the public, and a list of publications available to the public through the DOCEX system per his request for background information on the Director's wish to share intelligence with the public.

21. (Confidential - HMS) LIAISON Sent via courier to Geryld Christianson, in the office of Senator Claiborne Pell (D., R.I.), two Department of State airgrams regarding Raoul Wallenberg, the missing Swedish diplomat.

✓ 22. (Unclassified - RJW) LEGISLATION Called Karen Brenman, on the staff of the Subcommittee on International Operations, House Committee on International Relations, to ask if the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, FY 79 has been given a number designator. Karen informed me that it had not to date been numbered and probably would not be until after consideration by the full Committee. Karen also said that the Subcommittee had adopted the Title V amendment ("Science and Technology and American Diplomacy") in toto today in mark-up session.

✓ 23. (Unclassified - RJW) LEGISLATION Called Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, to indicate that the S&T amendment to the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, FY 79 caused us some problems and to ask if we might get together with him to discuss the issues. A 2 May meeting was arranged.

24. (Confidential - MMP) HEARING Had several conversations with Tom Latimer, Staff Director, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, on the proposed hearing on terrorism that Representative Les Aspin (D., Wis.), Chairman, Subcommittee on Oversight, was calling for 0900 - 1100 hours on 4 May. The last call confirmed that the hearing would take place. In a subsequent call from Loch Johnson, of the staff, I learned that the hearing would cover two aspects: (a) Countering terrorism via propaganda, and (b) Legal impediments to CIA's involvement in countering terrorism, with particular reference to collaborating with local liaison services against local (as opposed to international) terrorists.
